art : noun The expression or application of human creative skills and imagination, typically in a visual form such as painting or sculpture, producing works to be appreciated primarily for their beauty or emotional power.

How much would you pay for a piece of art? Would it matter who created it? Would it matter if your friends liked it? Serge has bought an expensive painting. To Marc the painting is a joke, but Serge insists Marc shouldn't judge. Yvan is pulled into the disagreement. Eager to please, Yvan tells Serge he likes the painting. Watch these old friends square off over the canvas, using it as an excuse to beat one another relentlessly as their relationships are tested to breaking point. Are you who you think you are or are you who your friends think you are?
