

Pirate play delights Leeds schoolchildren

THE Leeds Children's Theatre presentation of "Best Man Wins," at the Albert Hall, delighted an audience of 500 schoolchildren.

The play tells of the adventure of three children, played by David Billingham, Peter Nichol, and Joan Lake, who discover a pirate ship anchored in their secret swimming place.

More than 2,000 children will see the play.