

FUND for the education of the two sons of the late Rev. Don Robins benefited by the proceeds of a performance at St. George's Hall, Leeds, of "Little Boy Blue" by teachers and children of Middleton Secondary Modern School, under the auspices of Leeds Children's Theatre, which is associated with Leeds Arts Centre. These Y.E. News pictures show (above) a party of the girls with their mistress, Miss F. Pollard, hurrying from school to take part in the show and (below) some of the girls having a quick cup of tea while they change into their costumes.
