

Looking Back

A new play by David Wheatley

Two lovers

A lifetime of memories

A romance beyond time

7.15 pm Thurs 19 - Sat 21 June 2008

Box Office: 0113 224 3801

Unreserved seats - all tickets £5

Upstairs @ The Carriageworks

Millennium Square, Leeds LS2 3AD

www.leedsartscentre.org.uk

the carriageworks
the next stage

"I've lost count how many times we've been here, you know. This place has been part of our lives."

A seaside town. Two lovers on a bench. For Martin and Louise, these meetings have been part of a love story that has lasted for fifty years. Looking Back tells the story of this love – its trials and tribulations, its teenage beginnings and its journey into old age.

David Wheatley is a new Leeds playwright, and a talent to watch. This play is gentle, heart-warming – and surprising.

A must-see for romantics everywhere.

