

LEEDS ARTS CENTRE

Reg Charity: HS503872R
www.leedsartscentre.org.uk

Rosencrantz & Guildenstern are Dead

by Tom Stoppard

directed by Pip Tibbetts

The Carriageworks Theatre
Wed 27th - Sat 30th January 2010, 7.30pm

Rosencrantz & Guildenstern are Dead

by Tom Stoppard
directed by Pip Tibbetts

“For some of us it’s performance, for others, patronage. They are two sides of the same coin”

Rosencrantz and Guildenstern, two minor characters in Shakespeare’s Hamlet, take centre stage in Tom Stoppard’s most famous masterpiece.

What is the meaning of life, death and fate? Not easy questions to answer, but Rosencrantz and Guildenstern attempt to do so with the help of an endless game of heads and tails, a strange relationship with a band of unemployed Players and a pirate invasion.

Absurd, tragic and funny: this comedy is both captivating and entertaining.

The Carriageworks

3 Millennium Square, Leeds LS2 3AD (0113) 224 3801

www.carriageworkstheatre.org.uk

Tickets: £10 (£7)