Director's Notes

The essential thing about this play is the emotional 'glue', which keeps all relationships together, regardless of gender or situation. In reality, love is universal.

So here is a light hearted look at the fact that all families are the same, really.

We hope that you enjoy this production as much as we have enjoyed 'doing it'!

Pete Sandles
Director

This is a play in two acts set in Leeds on a

Leeds Arts Centre is an amateur dramatic society founded in 1945. We have members from all walks of life, including people who have worked in the theatre, others who hope to make a career on the stage, and many who are very happy to remain amateurs. We are a very friendly society, working together to maintain the high standards for which our productions are known, and we always aim to enjoy ourselves. We produce four plays each year at the Carriageworks, as well as workshops to help members develop their acting, directing and production skills.

New members are always welcome

If you are interested in acting, directing, designing or making scenery or costumes, helping backstage with stage management or props, or lending a hand with publicity, then why not speak to one of our members front of house this evening, or in the theatre bar after the show?
