

1927

Leeds Arts Centre
Presents...

Daisy Pulls It Off

By Denise Deegan

Directed by Zoe Freedman

Price: £15

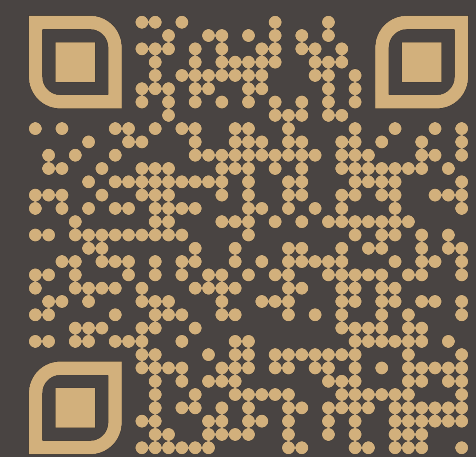

Box Office:
0113 376 0318

Wed 25th to Fri 27th
June 2025
7:15pm

Matinee
Sat 28th at 2pm

Carriageworks Theatre
Millennium Square, Leeds, LS2 3AD

leedsartscentre.org.uk
carriageworkstheatre.co.uk

CARRIAGEWORKS THEATRE

LEEDS ARTS CENTRE

Leeds ticket hub

NODA
For every stage

LEEDS CAN
COMMUNITY
ARTS NETWORK

1927

Daisy Pulls It Off

Daisy Meredith is the first ever scholarship girl to attend the prestigious Grangewood School for Girls.

However, the snobby girls are not going to make things easy for her, she is accused of cheating in a test and a poetry competition, made out to be a sneak and generally given a "jolly hard time." Can our plucky heroine, supported by best friend Trixie, prove her worth whether by scoring the winning goal in the hockey final, saving her fellow pupils from certain death or finding the famous Grangewood treasure?

Set in the 1920s this is a fun, lighthearted pastiche of boarding school novels such as Malory Towers, St Trinians, or even Hogwarts (without the magic!)

CARRIAGEWORKS
THEATRE

LEEDS
ARTS CENTRE

Leeds ticket
hub

NODA
For every stage

LEEDS
CAN COMMUNITY ARTS
NETWORK

